

Falling Stars

Standing outside of the window
Waiting for someone to show
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Feeling the strain of a lifetime
You feel like there's nowhere to go
Feeling so low Oh, oh, oh, oh

There's a God above who loves you
Just the way you are
He holds and protects you
Collecting the falling stars

Standing outside of the window
Waiting for somewhere to go
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Crying the tears of a lifetime
You feel like there's nowhere to go
Feeling so low Oh, oh, oh, oh

There's a God above who loves you
Just the way you are
He holds and protects you
Collecting the falling stars
There's a God above who loves you
Just the way you are
He holds and protects you
Collecting the falling stars

There's a God above who loves you
Just the way you are
He holds and protects you
Collecting the falling stars
There's a God above who loves you
Just the way you are
He holds and protects you
Collecting the falling stars
Collecting the falling stars
Even the falling stars are yours
